SEMINAR PRESENTATION ON A BIBLICAL ISSUE

Student Name: Reviewer Name: Seminar theme:	Yes	No	Comments
DID STUDENT MEET THE FOLLOWING PERFORMANCE CRITERIA?
1. You have explored a Biblical issue.
2. You have selected and applied a process of communication suitable for the audience and used suitable presentations aids (PowerPoint, whiteboard, computer, handouts, Bible)
3. You have presented your personal views and beliefs by discussing it in light of current or personal experiences to explain why you choose this topic or question
4. You have located and used resources to explore a theological topic in accordance with task and organisational requirements - Use numerous relevant Bible verse from Old and New Testament - Present statements from other people with respect - At least 3 other Christian Resources
5. You have accessed sufficient information to meet the requirements of the research task.
6. You have summarised key ideas on the topic from the research and their relevance to a contemporary audience.
7. You have selected and organised ideas to be presented in a logic manner.
8. You have presented information according to task requirements of the research task and Tyndale's requirements. Including legal and ethical requirements in relation to copyright and protection of information
9. You have developed and articulated your own views on the topic
10. You have identified implications of the different views on your topic or question and provided examples and sources to substantiate these.
11. You have described theological issues clearly in ordinary, everyday language that is suited to your audience and situation.
12. Present the material on a theological theme or issue in a clear and effective manner - There is a logical flow and is easy to understand - Engages the audience with clear communication (Verbals and non-verbal forms of communication- eye contact, tone of voice, enthusiasm) - Use of strategies to interact with the audience (film clips, pose questions, invite responses, ask people to read, seek feedback) - Use effective listening and speaking skills to confirm comprehension. - Respond to questions effectively.
Further comments, suggestions, encouragement or recommendations: SIGNED: DATE:			